

South Florida Sun-Sentinel.com

Diamonds knock off Wildcats in Palmetto Blast

JASON STROMBERG
Forum Publishing Group
June 17, 2009

For the first time in program history, the West Boca Diamonds girls' fast-pitch softball team captured the top ranking in the United States Specialty Sports Association.

It did so by defeating the No. 1 seed Miami Wildcats in the championship game of the Palmetto Bay Blast, May 9-10 in Miami.

As it stood, the State FLS and Class FPGirls8&UB had the West Boca Diamonds with 260 USSSA points, a power rating of 1,290, a winning percentage of .818 and an in-class record of 9-2.

In its victory over the Miami Wildcats, West Boca saw Brandi Antonio earn team outstanding player honors, followed closely by Anna Langley. Others who contributed to the success of the Diamonds were Brandi's twin sister, Brooke, Amy Robbins, Jordyn Griffith, Tiffany Saba, Ally Nerf, Peri Spector, Gigi Auricchio, Elly Jackson, Stephanie Proenza, Amber Koch and Aliya Laingor.

The West Boca Diamonds 8-and-under B ball club was coached by Jeff Langley, Tim Robbins, Kevin Griffith, Ira Spector, team manager Shelli Robbins and team trainer Karla Antonio.

Go to www.westboca.diamonds.com for information on recreational and travel leagues for the West Boca Diamonds Girls' Fast Pitch Softball program for girls ages 5 to 16.

Copyright © 2009, South Florida Sun-Sentinel